WINEMAKER OF THE MOMENT

Born in Chile, and after a 30-year career mastering soil and geography, Pedro Parra, a.k.a. Dr. Terroir, found the ideal land for his style of wines just 30 minutes from his own doorstep. Spread across the regions of Itata Valley and Bío Bío, his vineyards are affectionately named after iconic jazz musicians.

Pedro Parra, who earned his PhD in terroir from the Paris Institute of Technology for Life, Food and Environmental Sciences, is one of only three terroir consultants in the world. Over the course of his career, he has worked with top wineries across four continents and has masterfully applied his skills to different interpretations of the Cinsault grape variety.

Production is small, with each vineyard given its own distinct expression. Pedro Parra ferments in whole clusters at very low temperatures, using the grapes' natural yeasts — a concept known as super infusion — to create wines that are pure, delicate, and complex. Grown on atomic granite that express both tension and elegance, the wines are as playful and inspired as the works of Coltrane, Hubbard, and Miles Davis. Each label represents the jazz of soil and rock.
